DEFEND MARXISM-LENINISM AND MAO ZEDONG THOUGHT

1st March 2004

Publisher: Joint Coordinating Group (JCG)

No. 27

The International Conference is a forum of Marxist-Leninist parties and organizations.

Participation in the International Conference is based on the following main criteria:

- Adherence to Marxism-Leninism and Mao Zedong Thought and their creative application in the conduct of the class struggle in each country.
- Struggle against modern revisionism, and a positive attitude towards Stalin and Mao.
- Acceptance of the Rules of the Conference.

The 4th Conference adopted the following principles on which the cooperation of the participating Marxist-Leninist organizations is based, which were amended and again adopted at the 7th Conference:

- Independence and equality, mutual respect, mutual support and cooperation.
- Non-interference in internal affairs as well as in the bilateral or regional relations or any party or organization with other parties and organizations. Every organization is sovereign in its conclusions.
- Consensus and unanimity in decision-making.
- Achieve gradual unity step by step; principled debate and cooperation among parties/organizations and no public attack by any party/organization on another.
- Obligation of all participating organizations to prepare and conduct the 8th International Conference jointly in accordance with their possibilities.
- Financial independence and self-financing of the common work according to the possibilities.
